

In the name of God Amen I John Fickey of the town of Palatine in the County of Montgomery being weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, thanks be given to Almighty God for the same - Do make and publish this my last will and testament in substance & form following that is to say, it is my will that after my decease my body shall be decently interred at the expense of my executors herein after named - As to my estate, both real and personal I dispose of the same as follows. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, if she shall survive me all the real and personal estate I may die possessed of to be hers as long as she shall be and remain my widow and after her decease I give devise and bequeath the same to my son John Fickey his heirs and assigns for ever - It is my desire that my daughters Catharine and Margaret when they or either of them shall get married, receive an outfit in cattle & household furniture similar to my daughter Maria the wife of Nicholas Louch when she got married. - Item It is my will that two years after my decease and after the decease of my wife, my son shall pay to Maria the wife of Nicholas Louch, the sum of fifty dollars current money, and four years after the decease of my self and wife the sum of fifty dollars of like money to my daughter Catharine, and six years after our decease the sum of twenty dollars to my daughter Margaret and that immediately after our decease or the decease of the survivor of us an equal division shall be made amongst my three daughters aforesaid, of all the household furniture I possessed before my second marriage - I recommend to my children, that they live in the peace of God with each other, and with their dear mother, as I myself live to be a comfort to them, and to myself in the room of their deceased mother - and that they ought to respect her on account of the confidence I placed in her - I enjoin on all my children, to cultivate peace with all mankind, to be honest and upright in their dealings to live in the love and fear of God, if they expect a blessing - Lastly I nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife Maria my executrix, and my trusty friend Peter N. Smith Esquire Executor of this my last will and testament, which by these presents I publish and declare to be such hereby revoking all other wills or codicils by me heretofore made - In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 30th day of July 1822. Note - the name of Maria in the twentieth first page should be Margaret and page 2 in the ninth line obliterated and the word Margaret substituted. John Fickey Test. Signed, sealed published and declared by the testator as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who in his presence, and of each other subscribed the same as witnesses. Phil. R. Frey, Daniel Gray, John R. Gray.
